

Do NOT let The National Association of Broadcasters (NAB), the organization that represents the large radio and television owners, to have Congress and the Federal Communications Commission limit XM's ability to provide me with "locally oriented" content, including the new XM Instant Traffic & Weather channels.